Interlaken Group

Interlaken Group The Interlaken Group is a multi-stakeholder forum composed of representatives from companies, investors, international organizations, and civil society groups. First convened in 2013, the Interlaken Group meets regularly to identify practical ways in which companies and their investors can support improved land and forest governance and the tenure rights of rural populations. With steering support from the Rights and Resources Initiative (RRI), the Interlaken Group has developed a Guide to support companies aiming to align their operations with the Food and Agriculture Organization's Voluntary Guidelines on the Responsible Governance of Tenure of Land.
